Sir:

The PTO issued a Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application on August 27, 2001. A copy of that notice is attached under tab 1. The deadline for responding to this notice was October 27, 2001, extendable to February 27, 2002.

On February 27, 2002, applicants filed a Response to Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application. This response included a Declaration and Assignments executed by the inventors, a request for a four-month extension of time, and authorization to charge the necessary fees to a deposit account. A copy of the response is attached under tab 2. The response included an Express Mail certificate under 37 C.F.R. § 1.10, as can be seen on the attachments.

On December 17, 2003, the PTO issued a Notice of Abandonment, a copy of which is attached under tab 3. This notice indicates that the application is abandoned due to failure to reply to the Notice of August 27, 2001.

Applicants petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.10(e) for revival of this application and consideration of the response filed on February 27, 2002. This petition is being filed promptly after applicants became aware of the Notice of Abandonment. The number of the Express Mail mailing label was placed on the response (see tab 2). The attachments to this petition include copies of all papers required by 37 C.F.R. § 1.10(e)(3). All attached documents are true copies of the originals. Therefore, applicants submit that the petition should be granted under 37 C.F.R. § 1.10(e).

If the PTO determines that the petition should not be granted under 37 C.F.R. § 1.10(e), then applicants petition in the alternative under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b) for revival of this application on grounds of unintentional delay. The entire delay in responding to the Notice of Missing Parts was unintentional. The reply to the notice is attached under tab 2. This application was filed after June 8, 1995, so no terminal disclaimer is required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(d).

Please charge any petition fees, and all other fees required by this paper, to Williams, Morgan & Amerson, P.C. Deposit Account No. 50-0786/2039.017000KDG. If there are any questions regarding this response, please call the undersigned attorney at (713) 934-4094.

Respectfully submitted,
